Introduction

- ▶ A resume is a carefully written concise summary of relevant information about your education, experience, skills, qualifications and knowledge as it relates to the position for which you are applying.
- ▶ Resume Vs CV

Feature	Resume	CV (Curriculum Vitae)
Length	1–2 pages	2+ pages (can be much longer)
Purpose	Job applications (private sector, business, tech, etc.)	Academic, research, medical, or international job applications
Customization	Tailored for each job	Usually remains constant, updated with new accomplishments
Includes	Summary, skills, education	Education, research, experience, teaching, publications, awards, etc.

Objective Statement and Basic Details

▶ Objective Statement

- ➔ Position
- ➔ Field/Environment
- ➔ Skills or Characteristics
 - Example: To obtain a position as a Case Manager with a reputed firm and exhibit knowledge and experience in counseling, assessment, detailed documentation and attain personal as well as professional growth

▶ Basic Details

- ➔ Name in 14-16 point
- ➔ Phone, email address & LinkedIn Address in 12 font size
- ➔ Font size in the whole resume between 9 to 12

How to Write Essential Components

- ▶ Career Objective
- ▶ Education
- ▶ Certificate Courses
- ▶ Co-curricular Activities
- ▶ Extra-curricular Activities
- ▶ Work Experience / Project Experience
- ▶ Internships
- ▶ Technical Workshops & Industrial Visits
- ▶ Soft Skills / Professional Skills
- ▶ Honors & Awards
- ▶ Advance Computer Skills
- ▶ Language Skills

How to Write Optional Components

- ▶ Personal Details
- ▶ Hobbies
- ▶ Research & Publications
- ▶ Seminar / Conference Presentations
- ▶ Community Services
- ▶ Professional Memberships

How to Write Education Section

- ▶ Put degrees in reverse chronological order
- ▶ Type the degree with the major, i.e. Master of Computer Application / Master of Business Administration (mention specialization in - if applicable)
- ▶ Type the full name of the university, i.e., Gujarat Technological University and the name of the college and its place
 - ➔ Example: Darshan University, Rajkot
- ▶ Include the date the degree is expected to be received, not the years attended, i.e, May 2017
 - ➔ Correct: Expected May 2026
 - ➔ Incorrect: 2023 – 2026

Do's

- ▶ Keep your résumé up to 2 pages.
- ▶ Remember ease of reading and logical flow is important
- ▶ Use white space to make text stand out, 1-inch margins are fine.
- ▶ Use ONE font throughout that is easy to read and professional
 - ➔ Arial, Calibri, or Times New Roman
- ▶ Consider putting headings in 12-point font, avoid CAPS, rather use BOLD option Font size between 9 to 12
- ▶ Everything should be verifiable or you lose credibility
- ▶ Be consistent in formatting i.e. the abbreviation for Florida as FL not FI, use integers for dates (mm/yy) w/o leading zeros
- ▶ Tailor the objective statement for each position and modify info to better fit the objective if necessary
- ▶ Check and recheck spelling and grammar

Do's

- ▶ Maintain punctuation and capitalization standards
- ▶ Use good quality, neutral color paper and matching envelopes & use a laser printer
- ▶ Use key words relevant to the position/field

Soft Skills	Technical Skills
Communication	Python, Java, C++
Leadership	HTML/CSS/JavaScript
Teamwork	Data Structures
Problem-solving	Machine Learning
Adaptability	SQL/Database Management
Multitasking	Cloud Computing (AWS, Azure)
Conflict Resolution	Agile / Scrum

Don'ts

- ▶ Unusual email addresses
- ▶ Crowding the page
- ▶ Italics unless it is customary i.e. scientific flora & fauna
- ▶ Excessive use of Abbreviations
- ▶ Colors and different style fonts
- ▶ Excessive use of horizontal lines
- ▶ "I", me, & myself should not be used anywhere in the resume /Cv .
- ▶ Information that is not necessary
- ▶ Fonts that are unusual
- ▶ Exaggerating job titles or accomplishments

Don'ts

- ▶ Don't include random or off-putting hobbies
- ▶ Don't use clichés or jargons
- ▶ Don't send it as a word document – always in PDF form
- ▶ Don't steal the job description's exact wording
- ▶ Don't include obvious skills (Microsoft word, excel, etc)

Thank You
